B. About NECTAR

The North East Centre for Technology Application and Reach (NECTAR) is an autonomous institute set up under the Department of Science & Technology (DST), Government of India, headquartered at Shillong, Meghalaya.

NECTAR has been conceived as a collaborative centre of excellence to resolve last-mile challenges in the delivery, induction, management, use and extension of technology applications that serve public good and promote the social and economic development of the North Eastern Region. NECTAR facilitates the application of appropriate technologies for development in areas including biodiversity conservation, watershed management, telemedicine, horticulture, infrastructure planning and development, tele-schooling, and employment generation through utilisation of local products/resources and associated skill development.

NECTAR invites online Expressions of Interest (EOI) from eligible Indian agencies / organisations to be empanelled as Support Provider and Facilitating Agencies, primarily for Implementation of Skill Development, Entrepreneurship Development, Livelihood Promotion and Employment-Linked Programmes implemented by NECTAR. This EOI document contains the qualification criteria, submission requirements, broad objectives and scope of work, and evaluation criteria. It can be downloaded from GeM-CPP Portal <https://eprocure.gov.in/eprocure/app> and the NECTAR website (<https://nectar.dst.gov.in/>). Further details, if any, may be obtained from NECTAR during working hours.

C. Introduction and Background

NECTAR, as an Autonomous Institute under DST, is implementing various programmes / projects for Skill Development, Entrepreneurship Development, Livelihood Promotion and Employment-Linked Programmes, etc., across various geographies in India and especially in north eastern part of the country.

In order to effectively and efficiently implement such programmes / projects, NECTAR requires the support of experienced and competent Training Providers, Institutions, Agencies, Organisations, Societies, Trusts, Companies, LLPs and other eligible entities, for facilitation and support in one or more components of programme implementation. Accordingly, NECTAR invites this EOI to create a standing panel ("the Panel") of such qualified Support Provider and Facilitating Agencies.

The objective of this EOI is limited to TECHNICAL EMPANELMENT of competent and experienced agencies. It does not seek, and applicants must not submit, any financial/price bid at this stage. Financial bids shall be invited separately from empanelled agencies of the relevant category, on a project/assignment-specific basis, as per project requirement.

Priority Sectors / Programme Areas

Indicative priority sectors under the various programmes are given below. This list is illustrative and may be expanded/modified by NECTAR based on requirements:

- Semi-Conductor
- Drone Technology
- Healthcare
- Food Processing
- Bamboo and allied Bamboo-based livelihood sectors
- Any other sector/job role taken up by NECTAR

D. Categories of Empanelment and Scope of Work

Applicants may apply under one or more of the following categories of empanelment, depending upon their expertise, experience, infrastructure and available resources:

Category I – Training Centre Operator

Category II – Mobilization and Logistics Support Partner

Category III – Facilitating Agency for Deployment of Trainers and Support Staff

Category IV – Placement and Allied Activities Partner

Selection under a particular category shall be based upon the applicant's demonstrated experience, infrastructure, manpower, network, technical capability and supporting documentary evidence submitted as part of the EOI. Further, empanelment under any category shall not guarantee award of work. NECTAR may assign projects, activities or work orders to empanelled Training Partners based on project requirements, geographical presence, sector expertise, past performance, financial quotes and specific needs of the programme.

Category I – Training Centre Operator

The empanelled agency under this category shall provide suitable infrastructure and training facilities for implementation of skill development, entrepreneurship development, capacity building and livelihood promotion programmes. Indicative scope of work includes, but not limited to:

- Provision of training centres, classrooms and practical laboratories.
- Provision of sector-specific laboratories, workshops and training equipment, as per project requirements.
- Provision of hostel, boarding and lodging facilities, wherever required.
- Ensuring safety, security, hygiene, accessibility and other amenities at training locations, in accordance with applicable norms and scheme guidelines.

Category II – Mobilization and Logistics Support Partner

The empanelled agency under this category shall support outreach, awareness generation, beneficiary identification, mobilization and logistics management activities. Indicative scope of work includes, but not limited to:

- Community mobilization and beneficiary outreach.
- Awareness campaigns through field visits, meetings, camps and digital platforms.
- Identification, counselling and registration of eligible beneficiaries.
- Batch formation and training-schedule support.
- Arrangement of transportation, accommodation and related logistics.
- Event management and programme-coordination support.
- Any other field-level support required for implementation of the project.

Category III – Facilitating Agency for Deployment of Trainers and Other Manpower / Support Staff

The empanelled agency under this category shall provide qualified and experienced human resources for execution and management of skill development and related programmes. Indicative scope of work includes, but not limited to:

- Deployment of Trainers, Master Trainers and other manpower / Support Staff at training centres.
- Ensuring availability of qualified manpower throughout the project duration, including replacement of personnel within stipulated timelines, wherever required.

Category IV – Placement and Allied Activities Partner

The empanelled agency under this category shall support wage employment, self-employment, entrepreneurship and post-training livelihood interventions. Indicative scope of work includes, but not limited to:

- Identification and engagement of employers and industry partners.
- Facilitation of wage-employment opportunities for trained candidates.
- Organisation of placement drives, job fairs and recruitment events.
- Entrepreneurship development support and mentoring.
- Arranging guest lectures, industry visits and On-the-Job Training (OJT) facilitation.
- Any other employment- and livelihood-related activity assigned by NECTAR.

E. Period of Empanelment

- The period of empanelment shall be three (3) years from the date of issue of the empanelment letter, subject to satisfactory performance of the empanelled agency.
- NECTAR, through its Competent Authority, may extend the empanelment for a further period of up to two (2) years (i.e., a total period not exceeding five (5) years), on the same or revised terms and conditions, based on the empanelled agency's past performance and subject to a written request from the agency prior to expiry of the initial period. Extension is at the sole discretion of NECTAR and does not accrue as a matter of right.
- Performance of empanelled agencies shall be reviewed periodically by NECTAR. NECTAR reserves the right to de-list/de-empanel any agency that fails to meet the targets and objectives specified for a project, or that otherwise breaches the terms of empanelment. The decision of NECTAR in this regard shall be final and binding on the empanelled agency.
- Empanelment shall, in any case, stand terminated on expiry of the empanelment period (as extended, if any) or upon issuance of a fresh EOI/notification superseding this empanelment, whichever is earlier.

F. Eligibility Criteria for Empanelment

The applicant shall satisfy each of the following minimum eligibility conditions. EOIs not meeting any of these conditions, or not accompanied by supporting documentary evidence, shall be summarily rejected:

1. The applicant shall be a legally registered entity under the applicable laws of India, i.e., a Society, Trust, Section-8 Company, Private Limited Company, Public Limited Company, LLP, Partnership Firm or Proprietorship, etc.
2. The applicant shall have been in operation for a minimum period of five (5) years as on the date of submission of the EOI.

No. 8) before the Selection Committee. The final merit list shall be prepared on the basis of aggregate marks (documentary evaluation + presentation), category-wise. NECTAR reserves the right to cancel this EOI and/or invite it afresh, with or without amendments, without any liability or obligation, and without assigning any reason. Information provided at this stage is indicative; NECTAR reserves the right to amend or add further details to the EOI prior to finalisation.

I. Evaluation Process and Method of Evaluation

1. Screening: EOIs shall first be screened for compliance with the minimum eligibility conditions (Section F) and completeness of documentation, based on verification of the testimonials/documents submitted.
2. Technical Evaluation: EOIs meeting the eligibility conditions shall be evaluated for shortlisting, inter alia, on the basis of past experience of handling similar projects, strength of manpower, financial strength of the applicant, and other parameters set out in Section H.
3. Presentation: Applicants scoring 70% or more in the documentary technical evaluation shall be invited for a presentation to the Selection Committee, whose decision on the marks awarded shall be final.
4. Reference Checks: NECTAR may undertake reference checks and may have regard to the applicant's past performance with NECTAR or other organisations, in addition to the marks obtained.
5. Merit List and Empanelment: Agencies obtaining the qualifying aggregate score (technical + presentation), category-wise, shall be empanelled. There is no restriction on the number of agencies that may be empanelled under a category, subject to all agencies meeting the qualifying score. However, NECTAR reserves the right to limit the number of agencies to a reasonable number.
6. Agreement: Empanelled agencies shall be required to sign an Empanelment Agreement/Memorandum of Understanding with NECTAR, incorporating the terms and conditions of this EOI and such other terms as NECTAR may prescribe.
7. No Financial Bid at Empanelment Stage: Empanelled agencies shall NOT be required to submit, and shall NOT submit, any price/financial bid as part of this EOI process. Financial bids shall be invited only at the stage of a specific assignment, as detailed in Section N.

J. Instructions for Submission of EOI

- The EOI response shall be submitted strictly as per the formats (Format 1–7) enclosed with this document.

- The EOI shall be submitted online through GeM-CPP Portal <https://eprocure.gov.in/eprocure/app> within the prescribed timelines.
- The EOI shall be unconditional. Any condition of whatsoever nature attached to the EOI shall render it liable for rejection.
- All documents submitted with the EOI shall be self-attested by the authorised signatory; originals shall be produced for verification on demand, failing which the EOI shall be liable for rejection.
- The EOI shall remain valid for a minimum period of 180 days from the last date of submission.
- No financial/price/commercial bid, rate, or indicative cost of any kind shall be included anywhere in the technical proposal. Inclusion of any such information shall render the EOI liable for rejection.
- EOIs received after the last date and time of submission shall not be considered, save as may be permitted under GeM Portal rules.

K. Conflict of Interest

Where there is any indication that a conflict of interest exists or may arise, it shall be the responsibility of the Bidder to inform NECTAR in writing, detailing the conflict, as an attachment to the EOI.

NECTAR shall be the final arbiter in cases of potential conflict of interest. Failure to notify NECTAR of any potential conflict of interest shall invalidate any resultant verbal or written agreement/empanelment.

A Conflict of Interest arises where a person involved in the procurement process has, or may be perceived to have, a personal interest in ensuring that a particular Bidder is successful. Actual and potential conflicts of interest must be declared by any person involved in the EOI process.

L. Rights Reserved and Conditions under which the EOI is Issued

- This EOI is not an offer and is issued with no commitment by NECTAR.
- NECTAR reserves the right to withdraw this EOI, or vary any part thereof, at any stage, without assigning any reason and without any liability.
- NECTAR reserves the right to accept or reject any or all EOIs, in part or in full, at the stage of processing, finalisation, or even after finalisation and during the validity/currency of the empanelment, without assigning any reason.
- NECTAR reserves the right to seek clarifications, additional documents, or to conduct due diligence, including site visits and reference checks, in respect of any applicant.
- NECTAR reserves the right to disqualify any bidder at any stage, should it be found necessary.
- Applicants shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of their EOI, and NECTAR shall not be responsible for such costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the process.

M. Response

Bidders must ensure that their response is submitted strictly as per the formats (Format 1 to Format 7) attached to this document, along with all supporting documents referred to in Sections F, G and H.

N. Empanelment vis-à-vis Award of Work / Financial Bidding

Bidders are specifically advised that empanelment under this EOI is a technical qualification exercise only, and confers no right, entitlement or guarantee of award of work/assignment upon the empanelled agency. The following procedure shall govern engagement of empanelled agencies for specific assignments:

1. As and when any such requirement for any project arises, NECTAR shall identify the relevant category/categories of empanelment applicable to the requirement.
2. NECTAR shall invite financial/price bids (through a Request for Proposal, Request for Quotation, or such other competitive process as NECTAR may adopt) only from the empanelled agencies, having regard to project location, sector expertise, past performance, capacity, and other relevant factors.
3. NECTAR may, depending upon the nature, scale, or geographical spread of a project, invite bids from a limited/short-listed set of empanelled agencies (rather than the entire panel of the relevant category), or engage on a rotational basis, at its sole discretion.
4. Empanelled agencies shall not be entitled to raise any claim, protest or grievance solely on the ground of not having been invited for, or not having been awarded, a particular assignment.
5. NECTAR may issue a work order/assignment to a single empanelled agency, or to multiple empanelled agencies concurrently for the same or different components/locations of a project, as per NECTAR's requirement.

O. Performance Monitoring and De-empanelment

NECTAR reserves the right to review, at any time during the empanelment period, the performance and continued eligibility of an empanelled agency. Without prejudice to Section E (Period of Empanelment), NECTAR may suspend or terminate the empanelment of any agency, forfeit its EMD/security deposit, and/or recommend blacklisting, in the event of: submission of false or misleading information in the EOI; conviction/blacklisting by any Government agency subsequent to empanelment; consistent unsatisfactory performance in assignments awarded; or breach of any material term of the Empanelment Agreement. The decision of NECTAR in such matters shall be final and binding on the empanelled agency.
